

EN RÉSIDENCE

A watercolor illustration of a European street scene. The background shows a row of colorful buildings in shades of yellow, orange, and red. The buildings have blue shutters and balconies with black metal railings and flower boxes. A large bouquet of flowers, including dahlias, hydrangeas, and roses, is in a yellow can in the foreground. The can has the text 'Grind', 'DOM', and 'Coffee & Chicory' on it. The bouquet is decorated with red and white beads. The scene is set on a street with a sidewalk and a tree on the right.

Le Fleuriste Nola

A Living Subscription

Choose a cadence — how often your flowers arrive.

Choose a size — how present they feel in your space.

We handle the rest: sourcing, design, and delivery, season after season.

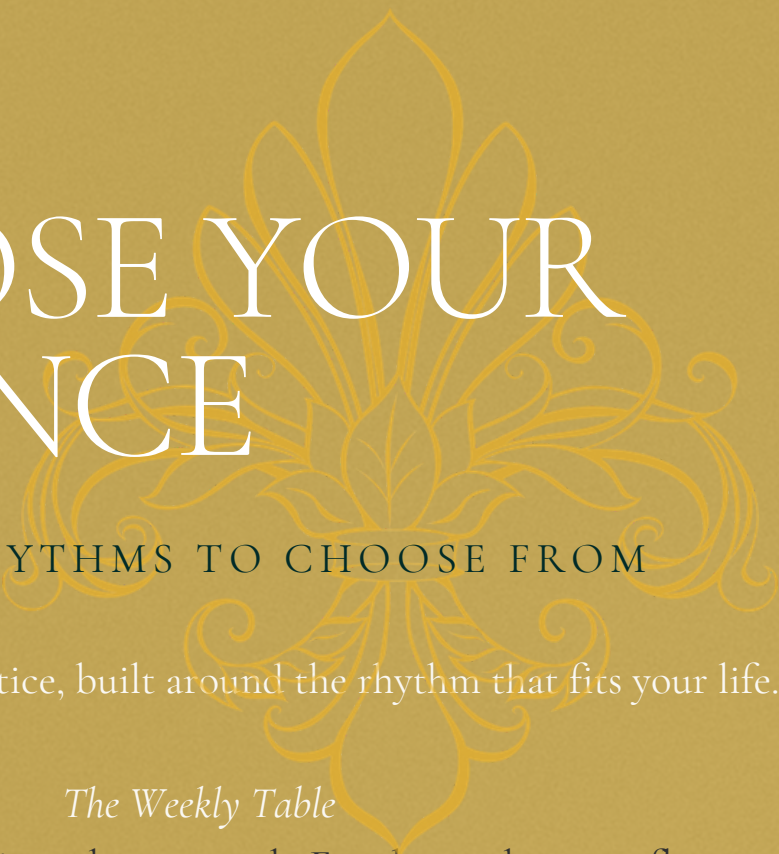

How It Works

Flowers were never meant to be a single moment. They're meant to return — with the seasons, with the weeks, with the quiet rhythm of a home or a room that's cared for.

En Résidence is our recurring floral subscription: a standing arrangement, refreshed on a cadence you choose, designed to become part of how your space feels rather than a one-time event.

CHOOSE YOUR CADENCE

THREE RHYTHMS TO CHOOSE FROM

A recurring floral practice, built around the rhythm that fits your life.

The Weekly Table

A fresh arrangement, delivered every week. For those who want flowers to be a constant — not an occasion, but a daily fact of the home.

The Fortnight

A fresh arrangement, delivered every two weeks. A steady rhythm, without the density of a weekly refresh.

The Seasonal Refresh

A fresh arrangement at the turn of each season — four times a year, timed to the shift in light, color, and material availability. Each Seasonal Refresh piece is designed larger and more elaborate than our standard rotation, marking the season rather than simply filling a vase.

CHOOSE YOUR SIZE

FIVE SIZES, ONE STANDARD OF CARE

Petite

An intimate, single-vignette arrangement. Suited to an entry table, a powder room, or a desk.

Standard

Our signature size — a full statement arrangement for a primary living or dining space.

Deluxe

An elevated, higher-volume arrangement for a primary room, or a client who wants maximum impact.

Luxuriante

A generous, richly composed arrangement for spaces that call for real presence.

Lagniappe

Our most expansive offering — an abundant, editorial-scale arrangement, for the room that anchors the whole home.

Every arrangement is scaled to the space it lives in.

glad you asked

Choose your cadence and size, and we'll take it from there — sourcing, designing, and delivering flowers that return to your home the way they're meant to.

For spaces that need something beyond our standard tiers — a larger installation, a commercial account, or a fully custom arrangement — we're happy to talk through a bespoke option.
